

Press Release
For Immediate Release

Joan Marie Granato Inducted into Worldwide Who's Who for Excellence in Management Consulting

Joan Marie Granato contributes to successful facilities that provide adult day care services.

BAYONNE, NJ, March 11, 2013, Joan Marie Granato, President of Future Focus, Inc., has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in management consulting.

Ms. Granato oversees daily business operations of the management consultancy firm, which provides adult day care training and programs, and certificate courses. Future Focus offers micro-market analysis, facilities design and program implementation for adult care needs such as developmental disabilities, psychiatric disorders, substance abuse and addictive disorders, and conditions such as Alzheimer's Disease.

With more than 25 years of experience in long-term senior healthcare, Ms. Granato has reorganized or revamped several adult medical day care centers. Some of her projects have involved renovating facilities, revising marketing strategies, conducting new hiring and training, and managing projects. Besides healthcare, her areas of expertise include program development and management, recruiting, working with hospitals and elder care.

Recognized for her accomplishments, Ms. Granato attributes her success to her parents. She became involved in her profession because at age 12 she was inspired by her grandmother. Ms. Granato also contributes her expertise to organizations such as the National Adult Day Services and the Family Support Center of New Jersey.

Ms. Granato received her Bachelor of Arts degree in therapeutic recreation administration, with a minor in psychology, from Kean University. Outside of work, she enjoys reading, writing, traveling and spending time with her children. In the years to come, Ms. Granato looks forward to growing within the industry.

For more information about Future Focus, Inc., visit <http://www.futurefocusweb.com>.